ADOQUINES / PAVES

A photograph of a wet outdoor patio area. The floor is covered in large, rectangular stone tiles with a natural, earthy brown and tan color palette. The tiles are wet, reflecting the ambient light. To the left, there is a low, dark metal railing and a thick, green artificial hedge. In the background, a stone pillar and some outdoor furniture are visible. The overall scene is misty or foggy, creating a soft, atmospheric effect.

MADERAS / BOIS

The background of the page is a close-up photograph of a metal surface. The top half shows a perforated metal plate with a regular grid of small circular holes. The bottom half shows a metal surface with a larger, raised hexagonal pattern, resembling a honeycomb structure. The text 'VARIOS / PLUSIEURS' is centered over the boundary between these two textures.
